Extended duty care available for returning members

Active duty members, Guard and Reserve members returning from deployments in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom receive a limited amount of free child care upon their return to their home station. The care is provided in one of the extended duty family child care homes on base.
Care will be provided on a space available basis and is limited to no more than 16 hours of care for each child ages 12 years and under.
If care is not available when first requested, the Family Child Care Office will make arrangements to have it provided at a later date.
Only members returning from deployments that were 30 days or more in length are eligible to use this service. The care must be used within 30 days of the return from the deployment unless the program is not able to offer it during that time.
The Family Child Care Office will verify members' eligibility to use the free care with the Military Personnel Flight prior to reserving care for the family.
Call 846-1802.
